Frequently Asked Questions

Do I get to choose my attorney or is one assigned to me?

You can choose an attorney from our network of over 500+ Participating Attorneys. With Texas Legal's online Attorney Finder, you can input your criteria and narrow your choices to attorneys who are best suited for your legal needs. You can review their profiles and make a selection.

Will my plan cover pre-existing legal matters?

No, Texas Legal only covers legal issues occurring on or after your effective date. However, if you have a pre-existing legal matter and retain an in-network attorney, you will receive a 25% membership discount on your attorney fees.

Does Texas Legal cover business-related legal matters?

No, Texas Legal only covers personal legal matters.

Are there additional fees on top of my membership cost for using in-network attorneys?

Unlike other legal insurance providers, Texas Legal plans do not have co-pays or deductibles. Your monthly membership cost covers your in-network attorneys' fees for legal services. Additional fees, such as filing fees, copies, postage, or travel fees, may apply in some cases and are not covered by Texas Legal. Refer to the Certificate of Coverage or the Independent Policy for details.

Will all the members of my family be able to use my plan?

Single coverage policies only cover the individual member enrolled. Family coverage policies are accessible to members and dependents listed on the policy. Refer to the Certificate of Coverage or the Independent Policy for details.

How many legal matters are covered per year?

All benefit categories listed under your plan are available once per plan year per policy. Attorneys' fees are covered up to policy limits.

Can I use my plan outside of Texas?

You can use your out-of-network benefits for any personal legal services rendered outside of the state. You will be responsible for all legal fees but may submit a request for reimbursement once you have paid the attorney fees. Each benefit has a maximum reimbursable amount, which may be less than what you pay an out-of-network attorney.

Are there any waiting periods?

Benefits are available as soon as the policy takes effect, with the exception of Family Law and Bankruptcy benefits. Family Law has a six month waiting period, and Bankruptcy is subject to a three month waiting period. If Family Law or Bankruptcy Law claims are filed before the end of their respective waiting periods, the legal matter will be considered pre-existing and only eligible for a 25% discount of attorney fees.

What if I have a legal question that does not require representation or in office consultation?

When you have general legal questions, you may call our Attorney Access Line at (800) 835-2255. Our representatives cannot review or draft documents or provide legal advice; however, they can explain the legal process.

What is the first step to schedule an in-office consultation with an in-network attorney?

Once you've selected an in-network attorney using our online Attorney Finder, contact the attorney's office to schedule an appointment and identify yourself as a Texas Legal Member. Be sure to have your Texas Legal ID card with you when you make the appointment and when you meet with the Attorney.
